

Timeline of former Federal Territories Minister Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor trial

Nov 15, 2018 - Ku Nan charged at the Sessions Court with two counts of receiving RM3mil from property developers.

On the first count, was charged in his position as the federal territories minister then, with accepting RM1mil from property developer Tan Eng Boo.

On the second charge, he was alleged to have received RM2mil without anything in return from businessman Chai Kin Kong via a cheque belonging to Aset Kayamas Sdn Bhd.

Dec 12, 2018 - Ku Nan recharged in court for a corruption charge involving RM2mil on technical grounds. Prosecutors withdrew the second charge originally faced by him as it was not the same, not related and was improper for a joint-trial.

Prosecution to refile the charge and have it read out again as a fresh charge.

Dec 14, 2018 - Case transferred from the Kuala Lumpur Sessions Court to the High Court.

Jan 23, 2019 - Ku Nan maintains plea of innocence when charges of receiving RM2mil bribe are brought to High Court.

Sept 3, 2019 - Ku Nan's trial starts.

Dec 21, 2020 - Decision in case reached, Ku Nan convicted.
